NorthCoast 24-Hour Endurance Race Sponsored By Flexus Sports Products

CLEVELAND, Ohio - The NorthCoast 24-Hour Endurance Run, which serves as the 2009 US National Championship, starts 9am Saturday October 3rd and finishes 9am Sunday October 4th at scenic Edgewater Park directly adjacent to Lake Erie in Cleveland.

All registered runners participating in the NorthCoast 24-Hour Endurance Run US National Championships will receive a free month's supply of Elevate-ATP as a way to safely energize the mind and body and offset fatigue before enduring the grueling 24-hour race.

The NorthCoast 24 Hour Endurance Run is coordinated by the Medina County Road Runners, a non-profit organization founded in 2007 to provide information, education and camaraderie for novice and veteran runners of all ages and abilities.

More information on the race is available at <http://www.northcoast24.org>

Elevate-ATP is a revolutionary patented, clinically-tested and safe energy supplement free of caffeine and stimulants. Elevate-ATP will not raise blood pressure or affect heart rate and is one of the most-effective nutritional tools runners will arm themselves with on race day.

For more information on Elevate-ATP and other dietary supplements for improving human performance visit www.Elevate-ATP.com or www.FlexusSports.com.
